JUDGE E. J. BROADORF was nominated for Congress at the Greenback Convention on the 5th inst.

DENNIS REAGAN and the Eastern journalists are fighting like Killdeer crows. We wonder if it will be with the same result.

News from the Maine election shows that the Democrats and Greenbackers will control the House, and maybe the joint ballot. Exit Radicals.

B. F. SATFIELD is the Democratic nominee for the Legislature in Carroll county. He is for Hon. Geo. G. Vest for U. S. Senator.

Jefferson County's annual State Convention of New Hampshire met at Concord last Tuesday, and nominated Nat. Webb for Governor. Their platform is a platform of war, advocating hard money principles straight out.

How the appoint of a Liberal Republican to the St. Louis Post Office is going to help the Grant movement surpasses the ordinary comprehension, but as a consequence it's worth guessing at.—St. Louis Times.

The news from the yellow fever districts is more distressing every day. Every day we hear of the terrible scourge spreading and breaking out in new places. The citizens of the North have responded and are still responding nobly to their relief. New York City has contributed over one hundred and sixty thousand dollars.

We present this issue to our subscribers, we confess with pride, a full eight column paper; and we think full of solid substantial matter. One thing we can say, we have not at any time misled our readers with sensational articles. We may have made mistakes, but have determined from the start to be candid. We hope with the increased size of our paper to receive increased patronage.

Nothing but ignominy can be gained by the attempting to use passive policy.

Safe, Permanent and are the cures of intercurrent diseases formed by CLIFTON'S Patent Balsom. Dumb Chills, Fever and Ague, and all bilious disorders are speedily removed from the system. Health and strength obtained more rapidly and more completely by the use of this great specific than by any remedy ever known. It disinfects, cures and annihilates all malaria. As a tonic, it is an Antiseptic and Blood Purifier, infusing renewed energy and vitality to the body, turn down by disease.
